Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the Desk of Msgr. Harrington...

Towards the end of the summer of 2018 we were bombarded with terrible stories of the abuse of many who suffered as children by those they trusted in the church. We felt betrayed and deceived by servant/leaders of the church we love and call home. It was at that time, as you may recall, that a few words were added to the Eucharistic Prayer to pray for God's beloved children who were hurt by those who minister in His name. I saw these words not only as an atonement to those who hurt in any way, but also as a vehicle of grace and healing for our brothers and sisters crushed by the malice of the abusers.

Although I will no longer pray these few words aloud during the celebration of mass, I want to assure everyone that victims of abuse are rarely far from my prayers. I would suggest that all of us here at St. Landry continue to remember to the Father His beloved children who have been devastated by abuse of any kind by any perpetrator. So many men and women have been neglected or emotionally, physically and sexually abused that it breaks the heart of God and brings shame to all of us. The following is a prayer from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) that seeks healing for the many who are broken.

Prayer for Healing Victims of Abuse

God of endless love, ever caring, ever strong, always present, always just: You gave your only Son to save us by the blood of his cross.

Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace, join to your own suffering the pain of all who have been hurt in body, mind and spirit by those who betrayed the trust placed in them.

*Hear the cries of our brothers and sisters who have been gravely harmed, and the cries of those who love them. Soothe their restless hearts with hope, steady their shaken spirits with faith.
Grant them justice for their cause, enlightened by your truth.*

Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts, heal your people's wounds and transform brokenness into wholeness. Grant us the courage and wisdom, humility and grace, to act with justice. Breathe wisdom into our prayers and labors. Grant that all harmed by abuse may find peace in justice.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

2 Kings 5:14-17 The foreigner Naaman humbles himself and receives God's healing.

Psalms 98 "The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power."

2 Timothy 2:8-13 If, like Christ, we hold out even to death, we will reign with Christ.

Luke 17: 11-19 Ten lepers show faith I obeying the Lord, but in thankfulness one goes a step farther- Straight into the kingdom of God.

Naaman, a foreigner, returns to Elisha and promises to worship God exclusively after he is cured of his leprosy. Another foreigner, a Samaritan, is the only one of ten lepers who return to thank Jesus after being cured. Physically and socially, their lives have been completely transformed and their immediate response is to return and give thanks. As we listen to today's readings, let us consider how God has blessed us, so we can sincerely respond, "Thanks be to God."

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us.
