Prayer to Saint Joseph

Oh, Saint Joseph, foster-father of Jesus, most pure spouse of the Virgin Mary, pray for us daily to the same Jesus, the Son of God, that we, being defended by the power of His grace and striving faithfully in life, may be crowned by Him at the hour of death. Amen.

Prayer for Protection Against Hurricanes

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

Prayer of Saint Landry

Through the intercession of St. Landry, bless us all, O Lord we pray, for loved ones, here and near, and far away. And everyone for whom we pray. Keep us safe each night and day, the homeless who have no place to stay. Those who are suffering in any way. The dying, those mourning or grieving and all who need God's mercy. Keep us safe, heavenly Father when we are at home, or traveling on our way, or when we are vulnerable, or in danger in any way. Most merciful Father, hear us as we pray for the souls in Purgatory, or who may be sent there some day. Amen.

Pope Francis Prayer Intention

JUNE - The Way of the Heart
We pray that all those who suffer may find their way in life, allowing themselves to be touched by the Heart of Jesus.

From Msgr. Harrington...

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. We first see the establishment of this important feast day in the latter part of the thirteenth century. Starting in Liege, France, it spread to other dioceses and eventually was established as a feast day for the whole church by Pope Urban IV. It was seen as necessary then to set a special day aside to recognize this most important gift of Jesus, the gift of His body and blood. It is necessary even today.

Where would we be if we had not been given such a gift? So many of us desperately missed the Eucharist during the pandemic. So many of us wondered if we would ever be able to celebrate Eucharist again. Now that we are able to celebrate the Eucharist as a community of the faithful we recognize the wonders of this Eucharistic banquet. Jesus gives us His body and blood to survive, to thrive, to accept His real presence, to have the opportunity to embrace the Son of God in our very bodies. We take that by which we are fed and feed the world. We take and receive He who is one with the Father and invite others to this banquet of life.

This Sunday we join the hearts of some of our young parishioners who will receive the Eucharist for the first time. As they celebrate their First Holy Communion, let us pray for them to be filled with the uncompromising love of God that makes them whole. Let us pray for them and their families to be transformed into the Body of Christ on this Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. We all want to live in the freedom of God's children. We all want to enter into the mystery of Eucharist, the banquet of life!
