OC CORNER

It is Homecoming Week! Good luck to the Vikings in their game versus North Central on Friday night at 7:00 p.m. in Donald Gardner Stadium. Spirit will build during this "Season for All Vikings" week with various dress days for students. Plans are for a Homecoming Mass on the baseball field on Thursday; and on Friday, a small parade around campus for the student body with a pep rally on the baseball field will cheer on the Vikings.

Please pray for "angels" in our 2020-2021 Angel Appeal Drive. Gifts will benefit the technology needs on campus such as new laptops, desktop computers and Activ Panels for the classrooms; and it will enhance the Foundation Trust Fund. Alumni, families and friends are encouraged to become "angels" for this important drive. May God bless you!

PRAYER TO OVERCOME RACISM

Mary, friend and mother to all, through your Son, God has found a way to unite himself to every human being, called to be one people, sisters and brothers to each other. We ask for your help in calling on your Son, seeking forgiveness for the times we have failed to love and respect one another. We ask for your help in obtaining from your Son the grace we need to overcome the evil of racism and to build a just society. We ask for your help in following your Son, so that prejudice and animosity will no longer infect our minds or hearts but will be replaced with a love that respects the dignity of each person. Mother of the Church, the Spirit of your Son warms our hearts: pray for us. Amen.

NATIVITY SET

The beautiful Nativity Set that is used in the church during the Christmas Season has been in desperate need of re-furbishing. The cost of this task is $12,000 and will be completed in time for Christmas this year. Anyone wishing to donate to this cause should contact Msgr. Harrington or Deacon Joubert. Thanks!!

ALTAR SERVERS

Parents of students interested in becoming Altar Servers should contact Deacon Joubert @ 942-6552. NEW SERVERS ARE NEEDED.

Prayer to Saint Joseph

Oh, Saint Joseph, foster-father of Jesus, most pure spouse of the Virgin Mary, pray for us daily to the same Jesus, the Son of God, that we, being defended by the power of His grace and striving faithfully in life, may be crowned by Him at the hour of death. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Landry

Through the intercession of St. Landry, bless us all, O Lord we pray, for loved ones, here and near, and far away. And everyone for whom we pray. Keep us safe each night and day, the homeless who have no place to stay. Those who are suffering in any way. The dying, those mourning or grieving and all who need God's mercy. Keep us safe, heavenly Father when we are at home, or traveling on our way, or when we are vulnerable, or in danger in any way. Most merciful Father, hear us as we pray for the souls in Purgatory, or who may be sent there some day. Amen.

From Msgr. Harrington...

The following is the final part in my attempt to introduce you to The Holy Father's Encyclical, Fratelli Tutti. I suggest you read the whole encyclical when given the opportunity. It is lengthy, but a valuable and beautiful document by Pope Francis to remind us that we are connected as a church, as a people, as a creation.

63. Jesus tells the story of a man assaulted by thieves and lying injured on the wayside (Luke 10:25-37). Several persons passed him by, but failed to stop. These people were holding important positions, yet lacking in real concern for the common good. They would not waste a couple of minutes caring for the injured man, or even calling for help. Only one person stopped, approached the man and cared for him personally, even spending his own money to provide for his needs. He also gave him something that in our frenetic world we cling to tightly: he gave his time. Certainly, he had his own plans for that day, his own needs, commitments and desires. Yet he was to put all that aside when confronted with someone in need. Without even knowing the injured man, he saw him as deserving of his time and attention.

64. Which of these persons do you identify with? This question, blunt as it is, is direct and incisive. Which of these characters do you resemble? We need to acknowledge that we are constantly tempted to ignore others, especially the weak. Let us admit that, for all the progress we have made, we are still "illiterate" when it comes to accompanying, caring for, and supporting the most frail and vulnerable members of our societies. We have become accustomed to looking the other way, passing by, ignoring situations until they affect us directly.

66. May we not sink to such depths! Let us look to the example of the Good Samaritan. Jesus' parable summons us to rediscover our vocation as citizens of our respective nations and of the entire world, builders of a new social bond. This summons is ever new, yet it is grounded in a fundamental law of our being: we are called to direct society to the pursuit of the common good and, with this purpose in mind, to persevere in consolidating its political and social order, its fabric of relations, its human goals. By his actions, the Good Samaritan showed that "the existence of each and every individual is deeply tied to that of others: life is not simply time that passes; life is a time for interactions".
