Prayer to Saint Joseph

Oh, Saint Joseph, foster-father of Jesus, most pure spouse of the Virgin Mary, pray for us daily to the same Jesus, the Son of God, that we, being defended by the power of His grace and striving faithfully in life, may be crowned by Him at the hour of death. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Landry

Through the intercession of St. Landry, bless us all, O Lord we pray, for loved ones, here and near, and far away. And everyone for whom we pray. Keep us safe each night and day, the homeless who have no place to stay. Those who are suffering in any way. The dying, those mourning or grieving and all who need God's mercy. Keep us safe, heavenly Father when we are at home, or traveling on our way, or when we are vulnerable, or in danger in any way. Most merciful Father, hear us as we pray for the souls in Purgatory, or who may be sent there some day. Amen.

PRAYER TO OVERCOME RACISM

Mary, friend and mother to all, through your Son, God has found a way to unite himself to every human being, called to be one people, sisters and brothers to each other. We ask for your help in calling on your Son, seeking forgiveness for the times we have failed to love and respect one another. We ask for your help in obtaining from your Son the grace we need to overcome the evil of racism and to build a just society. We ask for your help in following your Son, so that prejudice and animosity will no longer infect our minds or hearts but will be replaced with a love that respects the dignity of each person. Mother of the Church, the Spirit of your Son warms our hearts: pray for us. Amen.

From Msgr. Harrington...

On October 1, 2000, Pope St. John Paul II canonized St. Josephine Bakhita. Her feast day was this past week on Monday, February 8. Born around 1869, Josephine began her life in Sudan which was Dafur at that time. She was of the Dafu people and came from a prosperous and loving family.

When she was 7-8 years old, she was abducted by Arab slave traders and was forced to walk barefoot for 600 miles. Over the course of twelve years, she was sold five times and eventually given away. Throughout this time of enslavement, she was tortured and beaten many times. She was even forced to convert to Islam.

The Italian family who eventually purchased this beloved human person brought her back to Italy with them. Eventually they left her in the care of the religious community of the Canossian sisters in Venice. When they tried to take her back to Sudan, she refused to go. Appealing to the king's attorney general, the Michieli family were informed that Italy did not recognize slavery as legal and Britain had outlawed slavery in the Sudan prior to her birth, Josephine was never legally a slave.

St. Josephine converted to Christianity and was always grateful to the sisters who converted her. "Those holy mothers instructed me with heroic patience and introduced me to that God who from childhood I had felt in my heart without knowing who He was."

In 1893 she entered the novitiate of the Canossian sisters and in 1896 took her final vows. She became an inspiration to many in that area. Many believed that even though the bombs of World War II did not spare the town of Schio, the war passed without a single casualty. The people considered her a saint and felt protected by her mere presence. Suffering from terrible pain and sickness in her final years, she died in 1947. Her final words were, "Yes, I am so happy: Our Lady... Our Lady!"

A young student once asked this extraordinary woman the following question: "What would you do, if you were to meet your captors?" Without hesitation she responded, "If I were to meet those who kidnapped me, and even those who tortured me, I would kneel and kiss their hands. For, if these things had not happened, I would never have been a Christian and a religious today."

Let us pray for the intercession of this beloved saint to free us from our own bonds of hate and prejudice. Let us pray for all those who are victims of human trafficking to St. Josephine, the patron saint of Sudan and all human trafficking survivors.
