PRESENTED BY
FR. DON BERNARD

We believe that God created the world out of nothing. There was a void, an emptiness, a meaninglessness that God ended. By the force of His will, He created and transformed the void, emptiness and meaninglessness into life, the fullness of His love and purpose. This was how He brought order to the chaos and light to the darkness. This transformation is what brought life into being. The Being brought life to being.

The process of creation has become an ongoing process where the Father constantly transforms life into new life. Life is in constant movement, always in a state of flux. The vibrancy of His very Word uttered from the depths of His heart brought everything and everyone into existence. There is a fundamental connection between His Word and our lives. It is His Word that keeps that persistent progress of life while at the same time renewing the face of His creation. The hand of God relentlessly fashions and molds the clay of existence.

Life with God is about transformation – the dance from chaos to order, nothingness to something rich and vibrant – water into wine, bread into God-flesh, darkness into light, death into life.

What we and three of the apostles were given is a glimpse of this transformation. On this Second Sunday of Lent we see how Jesus is transformed; not from nothingness but flesh transformed to pure light and grace. The Father gives a hint of the future resurrection of His Son, therefore, giving us a hint of our own resurrection. We climb the mountain with the Son of Man and are transformed into His marvelous light. His will is that His transformation becomes our transformation, His transfiguration becomes our transfiguration. We are united with Jesus in the brilliance of new light, caught up in the dynamism of renewed creation and unyielding life in God.

This is the Father's decision and will. This transformation is a part of His ongoing renewal of His beloved creation. Let us not step away from it. Let us enter into the mystery of God in surrender and freedom. Let us trust in the bold mercy of God to bring order to our chaos and light to our darkness. We stand on the mountain of graced courage and ask our God to lift us up, newly baptized and flooded in His light.
