Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

Pastoral Reflection

From the Desk of Msgr. Harrington....

Why does it always seem to be so much easier to tear somebody down rather than build them up? Why do we become so excited to hear something bad about somebody else? Why does gossip and slander arrive so eagerly in everyday conversation? Are we so insecure with ourselves that we seek to elevate ourselves by burying others deep in the mire of defamation? Do we trust so little in the love of God for us that we find it necessary to make others look bad, so we can look good?

We have heard the story of the persons who felt remorse for the rumors they spread and yet could not see the full extent of the damage that had been done. They were told to rip open feather pillows on a strong windy day and let the feathers fly off. Then they were told to gather all the feathers and put them back in the case. That is what it is like to try to build back the reputations of the people we talk about; like trying to retrieve feathers on a terribly windy day. It is impossible.

We do so much harm to each other, needlessly and ruthlessly. What seems to be idle and harmless talk becomes character assassinations. We dismiss our 'tiny' sin as just a little gossip to fill the lull in conversations. It is so much more. It hurts and is capable of irreparable damage to another person.

Social media has the capacity to compound the damage. We can take a vehicle of communication that can unite families around the globe and use it to commit vehicular homicide by gossiping on a global scale. The internet provides the illusion of anonymity which empowers us to say whatever we want to say about anybody and everybody. We think we are given permission by some great invisible Computer-God to be as cruel and mean-spirited as we want, all the while justifying our words in a cloak of righteousness. 'Phariseeism' at its worst.

As Catholics we believe in the wondrous dignity of all life, from conception to natural death. This includes the lives of those around us now. We recognize their dignity and worth and strive to respect rather than to reject, to love rather than to hate or destroy. This is the stuff of the gospel. This is the way of Jesus of Nazareth.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Kings 19:4-8

Strengthened by that food, Elijah walked to the mountain of God.

Psalms 34

"Taste and see the goodness of the Lord."

Ephesians 4:30-5:2

Walk in love, just like Christ.

John 6:41-51

I am the living bread that came down from heaven.

The Lord sustained Elijah on his journey to the desert, providing food and water when he was ready to give up. Elijah went on to walk through the desert for forty days, a way of expressing a very long time. In the Gospel, Jesus reveals himself to be the living bread from heaven, able to sustain us through our trials and difficulties, and ultimately on our journey to eternal life.

Assumption:

Rev 11:19a; 12:1-6a, 10ab; Ps 45; I Cor 15:20-27; Lk 1:39-56

Next Week:

Prov 9:1-6; Ps 34; Eph 5:15-20; Jn 6:51-58

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen.

- Celebrating the Assumption of Our Lady
The Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary is a feast particularly dear to the people of Acadiana. Our Lady of the Assumption is the patroness of the Acadian people. And on the 250th Anniversary of the Arrival of the Acadians, in 2015, Fr. Michael Champagne and the Community of Jesus Crucified established a beautiful and new way of honoring the Blessed Mother and the faith of the people through the Fete-Dieu Eucharistic Procession down the Bayou Teche. This year's procession, in honor of the 100th Anniversary of the Diocese of Lafayette, will travel up the Vermilion River from Abbeville to the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist on August 15th.
- Centennial Fest – Honoring our Diocesan Centennial with our young people throughout the Diocese of Lafayette, we will have a youth gathering at Parc International Downtown Lafayette on Saturday, October 20th from 3pm to 8pm and will include Music, Guest Speakers, Music, Mass, Food and closing with a Candlelight Eucharistic Adoration with Bishop Deshotel. Our Youth, All Youth Groups, Families, Clergy and Religious are invited. Please mark your calendars now. This will be a great opportunity to see the Life of Our Faith. Admission will be free (food for purchase will be available).

HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION

Wednesday, August 15th, the church celebrates The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This is a Holy Day of obligation, which means Catholics are obliged to attend Mass just as though it were Sunday. Mass times here at St. Landry are as follows: 9:10am (OCS Mass), 12:05pm, & 5:15pm.

DONATION

In Thanksgiving to St. Anthony for answered prayers.

THAT MAN IS YOU
