Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

A Letter from Bishop J. Douglas Deshotel...

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I join with all of you in the mixed emotions of sadness and anger on hearing the news of the Grand Jury report from Pennsylvania on the number of child abuse cases made public recently. Although it spans a period since 1947, even one case of harming a child by abuse is a crime and a sin. Also sad is the poor response and ignorance of the harm done to victims by those in authority. To those victims who suffered so terribly, I offer my apologies for what they suffered in our Church. I also offer my prayers that God speedily heal them and make them whole.

I ask that all Catholics in the Diocese of Lafayette join me in prayer and voluntary acts of penance for the victims and their healing. I also ask that you pray for, thank and encourage the many faithful and dedicated priests of our Diocese. They suffer also because of the bad actions of a few. Just as we should not judge all policemen because of a few bad ones, so should we not judge all good and faithful priests.

Since 2002, our Diocese has enforced the Safe Environment Program for the Protection of Children and Young People. Everyone who ministers to minors in our Diocese must undergo safe environment training and be updated every year. Every priest, religious, teacher, volunteer, even me, must undergo background checks and safe environment training. I am happy to say that our Diocese received a 100% grade from the auditing firm that ensures compliance. If an allegation is made, it is investigated and if it seems credible, that person is removed from ministry and the legal authorities are notified.

This Centennial Year of the founding of our Diocese gives us the opportunity to renew our Catholic Faith and to rededicate our commitment for the safety of all children in our Diocese. As your Bishop, I firmly promise to be vigilant and to guard those placed in my care. If anyone has been harmed by child abuse or suspects abuse is occurring by any church personnel, please notify the Diocesan Office. Again, I ask your prayers for all victims and for me and all our faithful priests.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Most Reverend J. Douglas Deshotel, D.D.
Bishop of Lafayette

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Joshua 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b We will serve the Lord, for he is our God.

Psalm 34

"Taste and see the goodness of the Lord."

Ephesians 5:21-32

This is the great mystery regarding Christ and the church.

John 6:60-69

To whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.

Both the tribes of Israel and the disciples of Jesus are put on the spot in the readings we here today. Both groups are asked to commit themselves to the One in whom they believe. Will they follow the Lord? Or will they turn away? In the first reading everyone pledges to serve the Lord, but in the Gospel not all the disciples remain in the fold. What is our response??

Next Week:

Deu 4:1-2, 6-8; Ps 15; James 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27; Mk 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

PRAY FOR OUR SEMINARIANS

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen.

- Josephites come to Acadiana - In August of 1920, through the invitation of Bishop Jeanmard, the Josephites sent Fr. Thomas Duffy S.S.J. to take residence in Crowley at the newly established St. Theresa of Avila Church for ministry to African-Americans. The Josephites were founded in 1892 as a congregation of priests and brothers committed to serving the African American community. Bishop Jeanmard would rely heavily on the Josephites to staff newly created Black Parishes throughout the diocese. The first Josephite came to Acadiana in 1897, when Archbishop Janssens established the parish of Immaculate Conception in the rural mission of Petit Prairie, later renamed "LeBeau" after the Josephite priest Fr. Pierre LeBeau.
- Centennial Canada Pilgrimage – please pray for the 75 pilgrims who will be on pilgrimage with Bishop Deshotel this week exploring our Acadian History and honoring our Diocesan Centennial Year. All Catholics of the Diocese are being remembered and prayed for by the pilgrims and Bishop Deshotel as they visit the homeland of the Acadians and their place of exile which led many to come to what is now the Diocese of Lafayette. In remembering our past, we pray for our present and future knowing that the story of our faith is still being written.
