Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

A Reflection from the desk of Msgr. Harrington...

There are so many nameless faces throughout the New Testament. Unknown people move in and out of the stories in the Gospels and the letters from the early years of the church. Who were they? What were their lives like? Were they believers, non-believers, zealots, persecutors, the persecuted?

Maybe one of the ten lepers that Jesus healed that day who failed to turn and give thanks to the one who brought about the healing was a young mother. She was so desperate to return to her husband and children, she did not have the luxury to thank the young rabbi. When the community realized she was leprous, she was not given the opportunity to hold her children and share that last embrace with her husband, the man she loved. But now, she was healed! She no longer had to live outside of the city and suffer the degradation of shouting 'unclean' everywhere she went. She was free! She was whole! She could be with her family again. A second was too long. A moment was too unbearable. She had to be with them now.

Maybe there was a man in the crowd that day when the leaders of the synagogue flung that woman caught in adultery at the feet of Jesus. He was filled with righteous indignation. He knew the law. The law was life. The law was what brought order and direction to his aimless life. She deserved to be stoned to death. It was the law, after all. But that young rabbi was different. He challenged them all to be greater than themselves, to not use the law to condemn, but to lift up. He wrote in the dust and shamed others with His compassion and mercy. Who can stand against that? The man left like everyone else but continued to watch Jesus and the woman from the corner of a nearby building. He heard everything. The rabbi refused to condemn her. Refused to cast a single stone. How could the watching man refuse such compassion in his own life?

Maybe that same man became an unknown follower of Jesus and discovered the death of Judas Iscariot. Moved with the compassion of the young rabbi who Himself was to be crucified, the man lovingly took down the body of the betrayer and rocked him in prayer. He placed him in his cart, picked up the thirty pieces of silver scattered on the ground and brought Judas to his own tomb. He anointed his body and buried him there in mercy and forgiveness. He gave the thirty pieces of silver to a family who had recently been reunited with a young mother healed of leprosy.

Maybe that's how the gospel works. The nameless faces are transformed by grace and become the saints of God.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Deut. 4:1-2, 6-8

You shall not add to what I command you... Keep the commandments of the Lord.

Psalms 15

"The one who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord."

James 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27

Be doers of the word.

Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

You disregard God's commandments but cling to human tradition.

Jesus has harsh words for those who show themselves to be hypocrites. The first two readings prepare us for this lesson by explaining how our behavior shows others what kind of people we are. Observing the commandments, Moses points out, shows other nations your wisdom. James exhorts his readers to put their beliefs into action. Let us reflect on how we reveal ourselves in what we do.

Next Week:

Is 35:4-7a; Ps 146; Jm 2:1-5; Mk 7:31-37

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen.

- Anniversary of Fr. Lafleur - On September 7, 1944, Fr. Verbis Lafleur, a Military Chaplain and priest of the Diocese of Lafayette, died as a Prisoner of War when the transport ship he was aboard was attacked and sunk in the Pacific Ocean. Fr. Lafleur served valiantly during the war, earning the Distinguished Service Cross, the Bronze Star, and the Purple Heart. Many have marveled at his heroic model of virtue and perseverance in the faith. A Mass is held annually on the anniversary of his death at St. Landry Church in Opelousas. All are invited to attend this year's Mass at 6:30pm, Friday, September 7th to mark the 74th Anniversary of his death.
- Centennial Canada Pilgrimage – please pray for the 75 pilgrims who are on pilgrimage with Bishop Deshotel this week exploring our Acadian History and honoring our Diocesan Centennial Year. All Catholics of the Diocese are being remembered and prayed for by the pilgrims and Bishop Deshotel as they visit the homeland of the Acadians and their place of exile which led many to come to what is now the Diocese of Lafayette. It is of interest that the first deportation of Acadians began on September 5, 1755 which will be the day (September 5, 2018) that the group will return back to the Diocese. In remembering our past, we pray for our present and future knowing that the story of our faith is still being written.
- Centennial Fest – Honoring our Diocesan Centennial with our young people throughout the Diocese of Lafayette, we will have a Youth Gathering at Parc International Downtown Lafayette on Saturday, October 20th from 3pm to 8pm and will include Music, Guest Speakers, Music, Mass, Food and closing with a Candlelight Eucharistic Adoration with Bishop Deshotel. Please mark your calendars now. Admission is Free!
