Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

Pastoral Reflection #9

It was once said that the great novelist, Charles Dickens, upon completion of his lengthy novels, would aimlessly walk the streets of London mourning the loss of the characters he created. He felt connected to these people who were formed by his imagination. The characters became family members to him, and he found himself grieving every time he had to say goodbye. This is one of the more painful parts of the creative process.

The author loses his created world of words. The artist surrenders the brush to the finished canvas which now takes on a life of its own; it belongs to other people, it belongs to the world. The farmer says goodbye to the field at harvest time; that same field that demanded so much of the farmer's life now feeds others. The engineer witnesses others crossing the bridge she designed, and the carpenter sees the family settle in the house he built. The work of human hands serves the needs of others, but a fundamental connection remains between the creator and the created. The created bears the imprint of the creator.

The Father of creation takes delight in His creation. Even though there are times when we wander and meander through life, we remain connected in a fundamental, vital way to the Creator. His heart beats in our hearts, His breath mingles with our breath, His Spirit moves deep within our very being.

St. Pope John XXIII described the earth as God's playground. God created the world to have a being other than Himself to share His love. He created the world to play on the surface of the earth with His creation, to share His life-force with the creation He breathed into His existence. The connection cannot be severed. The bond cannot be broken.

When the created could not appreciate the splendor of the Creator, He then breathed another word. This Word became flesh and pitched His tent in the midst of creation. This crucified/resurrected Word showed us how profoundly the created is forged to the Creator, fused in water and blood, animated by grace.

Do we really think that such a dynamic relationship with the Creator who dances alongside us in light and shadow, can be permanently shattered like a broken dish? Do we really think the Creator loves us so little that at every opportunity we give Him by our waywardness, He can't wait to disavow and disown the very children He breathed into life, the heart of His heart, the temple where His Son pitched His tent? The Creator blushes with His love for us. He has set His seal on our hearts. He claims us as His own. He doesn't mourn the loss of His creation but celebrates the creation He will always love.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wisdom 2:12, 17-20

Let us condemn him to a shameful death.

Psalms 54

"The Lord upholds my life."

James 3:16-4:3

The fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for those who cultivate in peace.

Mark 9:30-37

The son of man is to be handed over... whoever wishes to first will be the servant of all.

Saint James warns of the dangers of jealousy and selfish ambition. We see the destructive effects of these desires in the 1st reading, when the wicked one plots against the just one. Even the disciples fall to this temptation, arguing about who is the greatest among them. Jesus ends the argument by telling them that whoever wishes to be first must make themselves the servant of all. Let us reflect on how we can resist jealousy and serve others as Jesus asks.

Next Week:

Num 11:25-29; Ps 19; James 5:1-6; Mk 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen.

Saturday, Oct. 6th !!!

- Can you change your birthday? - This week we celebrate the birthday of our first Bishop, Jules Jeanmard. He was born on September 26, 1879. But if you look on his tombstone in the Cathedral, you will see his birthdate marked "August 15, 1879." The first time that Jeanmard claimed his birthday was August 15 – the Feast of the Assumption of Our Lady – was on the day after his consecration as bishop in 1918. He offered a Mass of Thanksgiving at the Shrine of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in New Orleans, and as he spoke to the nuns and the Ursuline Academy students, he apparently decided to change his birthday.
- Centennial Fest – Honoring our Diocesan Centennial with our young people throughout the Diocese of Lafayette, we will have a Youth Gathering at Parc International Downtown Lafayette on Saturday, October 20th from 3pm to 8pm and will include Music, Guest Speakers, Mass, Food and closing with a Candlelight Eucharistic Adoration with Bishop Deshotel. Our Youth, All Youth Groups, Families, Clergy and Religious are invited. Please mark your calendars now. This will be a great opportunity to see the Life of Our Faith. Admission will be free (food for purchase will be available).
