Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

Pastoral Reflection #10

“Who do you say that I am?” The disciples were discussing with Jesus their experiences of proclaiming His message in the surrounding countryside. At first, He wanted to know what the people were saying. Who did they say He was? Who did the people hearing the message of Jesus through the voices of the disciples think Jesus was? Did they think He was the Messiah, the Chosen One? Was He a prophet? Was He John the Baptist brought back to life, or one of the prophets of the Hebrew scriptures walking the face of the earth once again? Was He going to be the new king of Israel or leader of the Sanhedrin? Was he the one who would supplant the Roman conquerors and create a new world order?

They did not know who this traveling rabbi from Nazareth was, but He wanted to know who they thought He was. Then He turned the question to His own disciples. It takes no real stretch of the imagination to picture the twelve with that deer-in-the-headlight look, hoping to give the correct answer. They probably each waited for someone else to answer, searching each other’s faces, looking to see who would hold up their hand first, or looking at the ground not wanting to be called upon.

Peter answers. “You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God.” What an answer! This coming from the one who will deny Him three times, the one who is ‘rock’ and will serve as the foundation of the church.

The question doesn’t end with Peter’s confession. The question is an invitation to all of us, each of us to discover who Jesus is. How we perceive Him plays a significant role in how we see ourselves. He wants us to answer the question to empower us to articulate who we think He is and who we are as His brother or sister. To say that He is the Christ is to say that we are need of His saving grace. To say that He is the Son of the Living God is to say that we are brother and sister to Image of the Unseen God. As Son, Jesus brings us to union with the Father. As Christ, He saves the world the shadows and presents it to the Living God.

If we perceive and understand Jesus to be far removed from who we are and where we live our lives, then we do not know Him as the Son of the Living God. He is relegated to be a statue that cannot be touched or an idol that cannot be approached. The Christ, the Son, the Messiah – this Emmanuel – is God with us. This is His decision, and to see Him as Peter saw Him that day is not from a mere human, but from God. God’s grace urges us to see the Christ sharing His life with us so we might bask in the Son’s love of the Living God.

Who we say that He is?

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Numbers 11:25-29

Are you jealous for my sake?

Psalms 19

"The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart."

James 5:1-6

Your wealth has rotted away.

Mark 9:38-48

Whoever is not against us is for us.

For years the Israelites looked to Moses to speak on the Lord's behalf. Similarly, the disciples looked at Jesus to drive out demons. But today we hear first of God bestowing the gift of prophesy on seventy elders and then of a stranger driving out demons in Jesus' name. Moses and Jesus respond the same way to the objections of others: the spirit of the Lord is upon these people. They are on our side.

Next Week:

Gen 2:18-24; Ps 128; Hebrews 2:9-11; Mk 10:2-16

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen.

Saturday, Oct. 6th !!!

- St. Therese of Lisieux - On September 30, 1897, a 24 year old cloistered Carmelite passed away from tuberculosis in Lisieux, France. Yet this young nun would have a profound impact on the universal church and on the faithful in the Diocese of Lafayette. Just three years after her canonization, a new parish in the Diocese took her patronage as St. Theresa of the Child Jesus was established in 1928 in Duson. St. Theresa in Abbeville would follow in 1959. Through her writings and her "little way", Therese touched the lives of the people of Acadiana. In the churches throughout the Diocese of Lafayette, she is one of the most commonly depicted saints in windows, statues, or artwork. Her feast day is October 1.
- Centennial Fest – Honoring our Diocesan Centennial with our young people throughout the Diocese of Lafayette, we will have a Youth Gathering at Parc International Downtown Lafayette on Saturday, October 20th from 3pm to 8pm and will include Music, Guest Speakers, Mass, Food and closing with a Candlelight Eucharistic Adoration with Bishop Deshotel. Our Youth, All Youth Groups, Families, Clergy and Religious are invited. Please mark your calendars now. This will be a great opportunity to see the Life of Our Faith. Admission will be free (food for purchase will be available).
