Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the desk of Msgr. Harrington:

Pastoral Reflection #14

Resentment clouds the heart. It collects all the spiritual energy of a person and draws it to itself. It's like a great bonfire that is always trying to go beyond its boundaries to consume more, to feed itself with all the life that surrounds it.

We may not be aware of the resentment that dwells within us and so often dictates our thoughts and behavior. It is the shadowed rage that urges us to be judgmental, unforgiving, unmerciful, and vengeful. It is the camouflaged violence that motivates us to violence in its many forms.

How did resentment become such an integral part of the human story? The early writers of the Sacred Scriptures knew its power to destroy and devalue the importance of human life. We see them describe it early in the book of Genesis; Adam blaming Eve, Eve blaming the serpent, both resenting God for not allowing them to eat from the forbidden tree, Cain resenting God for not accepting his offering, yet accepting the offering of Abel, Cain killing his own brother because of his resentment and rage.

The stories play over and over again in the human narrative. Our hearts feeling trampled because someone else got what we wanted, especially when we thought we were more deserving. Our hearts breaking because we never seem to get the opportunity to shine, always second best, always living a step behind. Everyone seems holier than us or more fortunate than us. We cannot let go of past hurts, we carry them as badges of honor and gladly share our bitterness with each passerby. Oh, we may not tell them our full story, but we communicate with our body language, our actions, our rudeness or any other negative message we can send.

Resentment clouds the heart. It is non-redemptive. It does not make us free. If Jesus wants us to experience anything from His Kingdom, it is freedom. How can we be free when it is so important for us to hold on to everything that brings rage into our lives? We expend all our energies carrying the great load of bitterness. There is nothing else left for us to be able to love with joy.

Jesus removes the bitterness when we allow His grace to turn our hearts of stone into hearts of flesh. The Lord of all compassion sees and knows the burden we carry and invites us to lay it down and hand it over to Him. He adds it to His cross, willingly and lovingly so that we might be free. He asks so little of us and gives so much in return.

Aren't we all tired of babysitting the resentment that we have been treating as a precious treasure? Will we dare to look at the entirety of our lives and see how many hours, how many days, how many years we have wasted in allowing this resentment to rule our every thought, our every action? Will we continue to allow resentment to define us and be the portrait of who we are, who we were?

We are given the grace-opportunities to love like God. How marvelous is the mercy of our beloved God!

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Kings 17:10-16 The widow made a little cake from her flour and gave it to Elijah.

Psalm 146 "Praise the Lord, my soul!"

Hebrews 9:24-28 Christ was offered once to take away the sins of many.

Mark 12: 38-44 This poor widow put in more than all the others.

Each reading today tells of someone who sacrificed the very last thing they could offer. The widow who welcomes Elijah sacrifices her last grains of flour and last drops of oil to bake bread for this stranger. The widow Jesus sees outside the temple sacrifices two small coins, her whole livelihood, to the temple treasury. The author of Hebrews points out that Jesus sacrificed his very life for our sins. As we listen to scripture today, let us think about what we ourselves are willing to sacrifice.

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen.

Centennial News - Sunday, November 11, 2018

- A Cardinal Visits Lafayette - As part of the celebration of the 80th Anniversary of the Diocese of Lafayette, Bishop Edward O'Donnell invited Cardinal Pio Laghi to visit the Diocese of Lafayette. Cardinal Laghi was serving in the Vatican as the Prefect of the Congregation for Catholic Education. In his six day tour of the Diocese in November of 1998, Cardinal Laghi visited many schools and was greeted by thousands. In St. Martinville, he blessed the Wall of Names at the Acadian Memorial, noting the "perseverance of these men and women that have brought us this far by faith."
- Centennial Mass – All are invited – the closing Mass for the Centennial Year of our Diocese will be December 12th at the Cajundome Convention Center at 6pm. Our Diocese and the wonderful people of our diocese and how God has poured forth His Love and guidance upon us in these last 100 Years will be the focus – A Century of Love. Along with the Mass, there will be a Historical Display before and after the Mass as well as a presentation of the many people and cultures of our Diocese. The doors will open at 4:30 because there will be much to be a part of and see. All Catholics throughout our whole Diocese are invited and encouraged to attend. Please mark your calendars.
- Tolton – From Slave to Priest – performed live by Jim Coleman, December 6th at 7pm and December 7th at 7pm at St. Pius X Elementary School Auditorium in Lafayette (205 E. Bayou Pkwy). Admission is $25 (ages 10 & up). For ticket information contact Stephanie Bernard – 337-261-5694 or visit: www.diolaf.org
- Centennial Items for Sale - a limited amount of items were created for this Centennial Year and are true collectors' items which will only be available during the remainder of this year – Centennial History of the Diocese of Lafayette (book),

Centennial Paperweight (color design), Centennial Christmas Ornament and the new Silver Commemorative Coin and designer box. If you would like to have a Centennial remembrance, you can purchase them at Acadian Religious, Crossroads Bookstore, Cathedral Gift Shop and the Diocese Chancery Office (1408 Carmel Dr). These items can also be views on the Diocesan Centennial Webpage.
