Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the desk of Msgr. Harrington:

Pastoral Reflection #22

Do we believe that God loves us? Do we really believe that He loves us unconditionally? Or do we believe in a god who is waiting to pounce on us at any given moment, ready to strike us down at some random instant in our lives when we are steeped in sin? Is He hoping that we forget one sin in our past that He can't wait to hold us accountable for? Is He so picayune that in His judgment any trifle thing of our past will disgust Him so vehemently that He will be forced to condemn us to eternal absence from His presence? Is the heart of God so small, so embittered?

One might say that scrupulosity is the spiritual equivalent of Obsessive-Compulsive Disorder. We are never good enough, never clean enough to win God's love and affection. We must ritually create a world where we bring all things into order to make our world clean and safe. We must do the same with our spiritual lives. There is no room for mistake or failure. Every little suggestion of sin is an affront to God and must be expunged, over and over again. Every hiccup in our daily life becomes the possibility of sin that insults God and causes Him to hide from us. In our scrupulous and rigid world there is no room for God's mercy, forgiveness or compassion. There simply is no room for God. Our journey becomes the self-induced, long-suffering trail of the condemned, trying to make sure that every speck of dust along our path is removed from our midst. Then God will love us, then God will be with us, when we are pure and innocent again.

Scrupulosity creates an anxiety within us to such a lethal degree that we see sin where there is no sin. Every dangerous thought, every possible distraction, every aspect of humanity with its limitations and weaknesses, becomes a sin. Not only does it become a sin, but it borders on the unforgivable. Once again, there is no room for God's mercy. Surely, He cannot forgive us when we have an angry thought or an impatient feeling, a disturbing desire or a resistance to prayer.

Do not misunderstand this reflection. Sin is very real. It is around us and within us. But the need to be scrupulous is a painful, treacherous valley that is difficult to maneuver. It promises us perfection by naming everything as sinful, as mortally sinful, thus destroying our trust in a merciful Father. Because we are so convinced of our innate evil, we limit God's mercy and love. When we limit God, that is the very definition of idolatry. Of course, we confess our sins, but we must also allow that God forgives those sins. He does not seek our destruction but lifts us to Himself in love.

Do you think Our Savior offered Himself on the cross, to condemn us? No, He saved us to condemn sin. He put sin on His own shoulders so that we might be free. Scrupulosity does not make us free. It makes us hate ourselves and then judge others with a squinty-eyed measure that is mean and cruel and not of God. The only way to fight scrupulosity is to bask in the love of God. The unconditional love of God loves us as we are, not as we should be, not as we could be, not even as others want us to be. He loves us in our imperfections, which then liberates us to ask forgiveness. It doesn't happen the other way around: where we ask God to forgive us, then He loves us. He always loves us unconditionally first. We don't deserve or earn it. It is freely given, because it is of God, and it is love.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

The Baptism of the Lord

Is 42:1-4, 6-7 Here is my servant: God's glory shall be revealed.

Psalm 104 "O bless the Lord, my soul"

Acts 10:34-38 God anointed Jesus with the Holy Spirit and power.

Lk 3:15-16,21-22 "You are my beloved Son."

Isaiah prophesied the Messiah, one who would bring peace and justice to the world. The early Christian community recognized the salvation they had received through baptism, salvation available to all. Saint Luke describes the Holy Spirit descending like a dove upon Jesus as he praying after his baptism. Let us realize that the same Holy Spirit descended upon each of us when we were baptized.

St. Landry's NEW MAUSOLEUM

When the time comes, where will I be buried? Have I made plans for that? How will my loved ones know my wishes? These are questions that we will all have to answer one day. What would you do if something happened in your family tomorrow? We don't like to think about those things and much less discuss the subject, but death is inevitable. Getting your burial space ahead of time is good family planning and makes good practical sense, especially now that our church is having a new mausoleum program in our historical cemetery.

If you buy now, you have choices. There are four different types of doubles, four different levels, also family units. There are different options for payment as well. If you wait until later to purchase, the options will be limited. The moment you sign up you are covered. Now you have the opportunity as husband and wife, and perhaps your entire family, to do your planning together in the privacy of your own home. Taking care of these plans now is a lot easier than to do so following a death.

Representatives from American Cemetery Consultants, are now available to meet with you at your home or at the church office to answer questions about the mausoleum and help you to choose the option that is right for you. The number of crypts selected before construction will determine the final size of the mausoleum. Spaces are reserved on a first come basis. Anyone wanting information should either mail in the postage paid reply card from the brochure that was mailed to your home or call 337-935-3570.

FATHER JEROME LEDOUX

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated Monday evening (1/14) at 6pm at Holy Ghost Church for Father Jerome Ledoux who passed away last Tuesday at Lafayette General Hospital. Viewing will begin in the church at 3:00pm until the time of the Mass. Father Ledoux was a retired SVD priest who had been in residence at Holy Ghost for the last few years. May his soul rest in peace!

PRAYER TO END ABORTION

Lord God, I thank you today for the gift of my life, And for the lives of all my brothers and sisters. I know there is nothing that destroys more life than abortion, Yet I rejoice that you have conquered death by the Resurrection of Your Son. I am ready to do my part in ending abortion. Today I commit myself Never to be silent, Never to be passive, Never to be forgetful of the unborn. I commit myself to be active in the pro-life movement, And never to stop defending life Until all my brothers and sisters are protected, And our nation once again becomes A nation with liberty and justice Not just for some, but for all. Through Christ our Lord. Amen!
