Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the desk of Msgr. Harrington:

Pastoral Reflection #23

Memory (Part1)

The human person's capacity to remember is remarkable. The power of memory can be both liberating and imprisoning. We can remember millions of things from our childhood and yet can't seem to remember where we put our keys as we hold them, or our glasses when they're on our head, or our cell phone while we're texting. It can be terribly frustrating when memory fails us. How embarrassing is it when we see someone we have known for years and their name totally disappears from our memory bank?

It can be particularly disheartening when difficult memories surface from our past that seem so alive, so vibrant, so painful. We try to brush them aside, but they demand our attention. Those disturbing memories wrap themselves around our hearts and refuse to let go. We thought we were through with all that, but here they show up again like unwanted guests insisting on places of honor at our table. Then we worry if we ever confessed them or were we really forgiven when we did confess them. Maybe they're resurfacing so we can confess them again or they're there to remind us that we were imperfect. They have the power to haunt us and trip us along our journey in the present.

We find ourselves in need of the healing of memories, especially those where we were blameless and fell victim to someone else's sin yet blamed ourselves for their brokenness. Our memories can make us feel stained and filthy. The healing of memories begins with realizing that God was never absent from the creation of the memory. If we were victimized in any way, God became victim with us. He held on to us in the darkness and loved us even when we did not love ourselves. He did not abandon us but cried with us and entered the pain with us. He whispered to us that we are precious to Him. Our pain may have been too intense to hear His whispers, but they were there. It seems impossibly cruel that He let anything painful happen to us, but it is cruel that we are the ones who hurt one another in such fundamentally evil ways. When we are broken, we break others.

The healing of memories urges us to be liberated from that which did not totally destroy us. We cannot only survive but thrive. Part of the process of healing is realizing that the memory no longer has to victimize us. We are empowered with grace to recreate a memory where we return to the story and embrace the person we were rather than condemn them. We empower our past with an abundance of God's love to allow Him to heal that broken part of us that has defined our present for too long. He travels with us back into our story to battle the toxic shame with us rather than allow it to consume us.

The Eucharistic Feast is based on human memory. Jesus wants us to remember not only what He did for us but what He continues to do for us. He died for us yet lives for us. He became broken to free us from our brokenness. As He was sacrificed for our sakes He chose to enter into our darkness to whisper again that we are beloved, we are precious, we are His. We do not belong to our painful memory, we belong to Him. This sacramental change transforms our shame into grace. This grace moves us to then work with the Savior to heal others as they get to know Him. Blessed be our God who refuses to abandon us but invites Himself to our table to be nourished with His life-giving bread. The Bread of Life enriches to become eucharist for one another. We are the Body of Christ sent forth to feed the Body of Christ to the Body of Christ. Love following upon love.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Neh 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10 They read from the book of the Law and understood what was read.

Psalm 19 "Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life."

1 Cor 12:12-30 We are Christ's body.

Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21 Today the Scripture passage is fulfilled.

Last week Jesus began his ministry in John's Gospel by changing water into wine at a wedding in Cana. Today he begins his ministry in Luke's Gospel by preaching at his synagogue in Nazareth. Ironically, the passage he was to read summed up his mission. "Today," Jesus said, "this scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." Today, as members of The Body of Christ, we are called to continue to fulfill Christ's mission. Let us discover what we are called to do.

PRAYER TO END ABORTION

Lord God, I thank you today for the gift of my life, And for the lives of all my brothers and sisters. I know there is nothing that destroys more life than abortion, Yet I rejoice that you have conquered death by the Resurrection of Your Son. I am ready to do my part in ending abortion. Today I commit myself Never to be silent, Never to be passive, Never to be forgetful of the unborn. I commit myself to be active in the pro-life movement, And never to stop defending life Until all my brothers and sisters are protected, And our nation once again becomes A nation with liberty and justice Not just for some, but for all. Through Christ our Lord. Amen!

St. Landry's NEW MAUSOLEUM

When the time comes, where will I be buried? Have I made plans for that? How will my loved ones know my wishes? These are questions that we will all have to answer one day. What would you do if something happened in your family tomorrow? We don't like to think about those things and much less discuss the subject, but death is inevitable. Getting your burial space ahead of time is good family planning and makes good practical sense, especially now that our church is having a new mausoleum program in our historical cemetery.

If you buy now, you have choices. There are four different types of doubles, four different levels, also family units. There are different options for payment as well. If you wait until later to purchase, the options will be limited. The moment you sign up you are covered. Now you have the opportunity as husband and wife, and perhaps your entire family, to do your planning together in the privacy of your own home. Taking care of these plans now is a lot easier than to do so following a death.

Representatives from American Cemetery Consultants, are now available to meet with you at your home or at the church office to answer questions about the mausoleum and help you to choose the option that is right for you. The number of crypts selected before construction will determine the final size of the mausoleum. Spaces are reserved on a first come basis. Anyone wanting information should either mail in the postage paid reply card from the brochure that was mailed to your home or call 337-935-3570.
