Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the desk of Msgr. Harrington:

Pastoral Reflection #27

“The measure with which you measure will be used to measure you. (Matthew 7:2)” I don’t know about you, but this is one scripture passage I wish wouldn’t have made it through St. Jerome’s translation. It appears in various forms in three of the four gospels; Matthew, Mark and Luke. It is a saying attributed to Jesus that is so alarming and challenging we often skip over it and move on to the next parable or teaching.

How we judge others, how we judge the world is how we will be judged. The measuring cup we use will be the measuring cup that God will use to judge us. The teaching couldn’t be any clearer. Even if not taken literally, it is still a sobering opportunity for us to reflect on our measuring cup.

Is our cup substantial and merciful? Is our cup forgiving? Is it so generous that we see everyone else as gift and fellow pilgrim? Is our cup so full of the wonder of God that we willingly love others, are patient of others, non-judgmental of others? Is our measuring cup so vast that we can hardly carry it – it is so full of all of God’s creation?

Or is our measuring cup the size of a doll’s thimble? There is no room for mercy or forgiveness. There is no room for those who cannot pass the harsh judgments we place on them. No one can live up to our standards, no one is worthy of our love – not even ourselves. We become more severe judges than God. He has to love everyone, whereby we are free to run roughshod over others, ignoring their true selves and obsessing over what we perceive as their faults. It is too easy for us to chart the inadequacies of others; our captain’s logs are jammed pack with our accounts of everybody’s shortcomings. The amazing thing is how swiftly we judge others. It can happen in the blink of an eye. It happens before we even realize it.

We so willingly point at others, take the limelight off ourselves, and judge away to our hearts content. Somewhere deep in our conscience we might whisper to ourselves, “oh, I shouldn’t do that, it’s not nice”.

But Jesus makes it quite clear, it is definitely more than just ‘not nice’. To judge others is to construct a measuring cup that will be used to judge us. That very same cup that our self-righteousness polishes and shrinks will corrosively judge us. The smallness of our mercy and forgiveness, the poverty of our own hearts will be used to consider our worthiness to bask in the presence of God. It is not God judging us; we are judging ourselves by our own cup, and we are found wanting.

But if Jesus teaches us anything, He teaches us that we can change. It is never too late. With His grace we can stretch our hearts, mold new measuring cups that are forged in His love, His mercy, His forgiveness. Are we not tired of carrying the burden of hyper-criticism of others and ourselves? Is not our hypocrisy the heaviest burden of all? Can we not see that our squinty-eyed judgments rob the integrity of God’s creation of its wonder and beauty?

Let anyone among us who is sinless cast the first stone.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING The Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jeremiah 17:5-8 Cursed are those whose hearts turn away from God.

Psalms 1 "Blessed are they who hope in the Lord."

1 Cor 15:12, 16-20 Christ has been raised from the dead.

Luke 6:17, 20-26 The Beatitudes

It's time to choose sides. The selections from Jeremiah, Psalms, and Luke each describe the favorable consequences for one group of people and the unfavorable consequences for the opposite group. Jeremiah distinguishes between those who place their trust in God and those who place their trust in others. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus reassures those who are suffering while warning those who are prospering. It is sobering. Let Saint Paul's proclamation of Christ's resurrection be of comfort to all of us.

St. Landry's NEW MAUSOLEUM

When the time comes, where will I be buried? Have I made plans for that? How will my loved ones know my wishes? These are questions that we will all have to answer one day. What would you do if something happened in your family tomorrow? We don't like to think about those things and much less discuss the subject, but death is inevitable. Getting your burial space ahead of time is good family planning and makes good practical sense, especially now that our church is having a new mausoleum program in our historical cemetery.

If you buy now, you have choices. There are four different types of doubles, four different levels, also family units. There are different options for payment as well. If you wait until later to purchase, the options will be limited. The moment you sign up you are covered. Now you have the opportunity as husband and wife, and perhaps your entire family, to do your planning together in the privacy of your own home. Taking care of these plans now is a lot easier than to do so following a death.

Representatives from American Cemetery Consultants, are now available to meet with you at your home or at the church office to answer questions about the mausoleum and help you to choose the option that is right for you. The number of crypts selected before construction will determine the final size of the mausoleum. Spaces are reserved on a first come basis. Anyone wanting information should either mail in the postage paid reply card from the brochure that was mailed to your home or call 337-935-3570.
