Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the desk of Msgr. Harrington:

Pastoral Reflection #29

As we are cruising through the 'busyness' of life, Lent is the opportunity to slam on the brakes. It is the time to be centered, to be mindful, to be reflective, to be engaged in good works and sacred actions. It is the time to remind ourselves that Jesus is at the very center of who we are.

After His baptism in the Jordan River, Jesus is led by the Spirit into the desert. This is the holy place where Jesus grapples with His god/human identity. How faithful can He be in the face of temptation and doubt? How faithful can He be to the Father and to Himself? What will be His journey? What will be His purpose?

The forty-day experience in the desert gives Jesus that opportunity to search His own heart. Our Lenten journey offers us that same opportunity. Where is our heart? Who are we as Catholics, Christians, disciples? Who are we as children of God, desperate enough to hold us to Himself that He would send His son to usher us to Himself? What can we do to open our hearts for this wonder filled journey of Lent?

That is why we fast, abstain, do penance, do good works in this holy season; to allow ourselves to be overwhelmed by God's grace to come to a greater awareness of Him and ourselves as His children. As children we tried to 'give up' the things we hated to lighten the burden of our sacrifice. We thought we could fool our parents and God by our stingy offering. We 'gave up' stuff because we were supposed to, not because we wanted to.

Whatever penance we participate in during Lent is to come from our heart. It is to remind us that Jesus is the center of our desert. That the Spirit once again leads Him into our desert to bring life, clarity, fidelity, mercy and compassion. He enters our desert to teach us anew how to love. One of the ways He enters is through our penance. Whatever we choose we hope to discover Him pouring life-giving water in the arid corners of our hearts. We hope to find Him pruning and nurturing the twigs that have become withered in the heat of the sun. We hope that he brings a new spring into our winter. The word 'lent' comes from the Old English which means 'spring season'.

The Church asks us to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all the Fridays in Lent, as well as fasting on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. We are to develop our own acts of penance for this holy season: doing good works, participating in the sacraments of reconciliation and eucharist, creating more time for prayer and reflection, abstaining from activities that serve as distractions. There are numerous things that we can do to allow God's grace to open our hearts to His presence.

Lent is not meant to be a time to additionally burden ourselves with toxic shame and destructive guilt. It is a new spring, a new dawning, a penitential opportunity to process toward resurrection and Easter joy. We do ourselves and this holy season a disservice if we just pile on the disgrace and disappointment that we think God sees in us. We insult Him when we relegate Him to the angry judge who looks away from us in utter disgust. Lent is the time He really looks at us in His compassion and mercy and empowers us to become more like the One who frees us from sin. He is enfleshed in us to help us to remember the covenant; we are His people, He is our God. He loves us beyond our incompleteness and calls us to do the same. It is a new spring. It is a new life.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

The Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sirach 27:4-7 Praise no one before he speaks.

Psalms 92 "Lord, it is good to give thanks to you."

1 Cor 15:54-58 God gives us victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Luke 6:39-45 From the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks.

Wisdom literature is chock full of aphorisms---short, pithy statement of truth---and the opening reading from Sirach is typical. Jesus shares some of his own with his disciples, and even the psalmist and Saint Paul's letter include a few. These oft-heard sayings come from seldom-heard passages, however. Due to the variability of the liturgical seasons, these particular readings have not been proclaimed at Mass for over twenty years. Let us seize this opportunity to listen to the wise words.

St. Landry's NEW MAUSOLEUM

When the time comes, where will I be buried? Have I made plans for that? How will my loved ones know my wishes? These are questions that we will all have to answer one day. What would you do if something happened in your family tomorrow? We don't like to think about those things and much less discuss the subject, but death is inevitable. Getting your burial space ahead of time is good family planning and makes good practical sense, especially now that our church is having a new mausoleum program in our historical cemetery.

If you buy now, you have choices. There are four different types of doubles, four different levels, also family units. There are different options for payment as well. If you wait until later to purchase, the options will be limited. The moment you sign up you are covered. Now you have the opportunity as husband and wife, and perhaps your entire family, to do your planning together in the privacy of your own home. Taking care of these plans now is a lot easier than to do so following a death.

Representatives from American Cemetery Consultants, are now available to meet with you at your home or at the church office to answer questions about the mausoleum and help you to choose the option that is right for you. The number of crypts selected before construction will determine the final size of the mausoleum. Spaces are reserved on a first come basis. Anyone wanting information should either mail in the postage paid reply card from the brochure that was mailed to your home or call 337-935-3570.
