Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the Desk of Msgr. Harrington...

Albert Einstein wrote the following: “A hundred times a day I remind myself that my inner and outer lives are based on the labors of other people, living and dead, and that I must exert myself in order to give the same measure as I have received and am still receiving.”

We are all conduits of God’s grace and love. It is never ours to selfishly grasp and desperately hold on to. Bits and pieces stick to our hearts and define us, but for the most part, we simply pass on what we have received. When we are showered in God’s mercy and forgiveness, then we become the pitcher which quenches our brothers and sisters who suffer in the terrible heat of self-loathing and pitiless guilt. We are not the water; Jesus is the Living Water. He uses us as the pitcher, the sacred vessel to bring the life-giving water to those who thirst.

When we find ourselves overflowing with God’s love, then it becomes necessary to pass that on, especially to the broken who are not feeling the love of God because of the dreadful place they find themselves in. We do so not in a ‘look-what-I-have-and-you-don’t’ sort of way, but in a humble, grateful, grace-filled way. We lift up the other in prayer and ministry of presence and works of charity. We share the providence of God because that is His nature. The love needs to be shared; the sap from the vine to the branches compels us to flow in the lives of others.

We do not minister in positions of power. We minister from our powerlessness, because it is Jesus who has the power, the kingdom and the glory. That is why St. Paul became weak so that Jesus might be strong in him. That is why St. Peter left his fishing to become the rock to build the church of God. That is why St. Francis and St. Claire and St. Anthony and St. Mother Katharine Drexel left their privileged lives, gave everything away for the sake of others. That is why St. Theresa of Calcutta and St. Oscar Romero tended to the poor and dedicated their lives and spilled their blood for God’s people, for the truth of the gospel.

Venerable Henriette Delille, foundress of the Community of the Holy Family Sisters, secretly had the children of slaves and free people of color baptized in St. Louis Cathedral of New Orleans before the civil war. Who does that? Who risks death or torture for the sake of God’s love? Who chooses to defy the violence and injustice of the world by surrendering to grace?

How could so many in the history of the world, in the history of the people of God, know that God’s grace touches them and then they are compelled to pass it on? Our hearts are kissed by grace and the lives and love of others. Our fellow pilgrims who have brushed through our lives help us to understand and appreciate God’s providence and our need to pass it on.

That is why our prayer is not to be solely self-centered. We pray for one another. We enter the mystery of universal prayer. We are those vessels that God uses to spread His love, His mercy, His forgiveness, His compassion, His justice. This is the measure of our heart; to somehow pass on more than we have received.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gen 18:1-10a Sarah and Abraham receive God as a guest.

Psalm 15 “He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.”

Colossians 1:24-28 The body of Christ suffers and rejoices in our sufferings and joys.

Luke 10:38-42 Martha and Mary received Jesus as a guest.

Two of today's readings focus on hospitality, the way we treat a guest. Abraham receives a visit from three strangers and he treats them extravagantly, only discovering in the end who they really are. Martha and Mary welcome Jesus to their home, each serving him in her own way. In between we hear from Paul, who as a missionary was welcomed by faithful Christians in towns around the eastern Mediterranean. Through our ears, may we offer the hospitality our Lord desires.

PRAY FOR OUR SEMINARIANS

-Michael Vidrine St. John, Melville

Thursday, 07/25 Fr. David Hebert

Friday, 07/26 Fr. Matthew Hebert

Saturday, 07/27 Fr. T.J. Hebert

Eternal Father, we lift up to You, these and all the priests of the world. Sanctify them. Heal and guide them. Mold them into the likeness of Your Son Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus' name we pray. AMEN

You may register online @ Diolaf.org/Theology-of-the-body-for-NFP or by calling the office of Marriage and Family Life – 337-261-5653.

ONLINE CATECHESIS

The Diocese of Lafayette has partnered with Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio, to give everyone in the diocese access to workshops that can help in their religious formation. Although some of the workshops are geared towards teachers, many simply give information on topics that many of us want to know more about (i.e. the Eucharist, Mary, New Testament, Old Testament). All you have to do is go to www.franciscanathome.com/diolaf to begin to create your account. The Office of Catechetics has a short 3 minute video on their webpage that will direct you on how to create an account. Our parish (or institution) has already been placed in the system, so all you have to do is create your personal account.

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us.
