Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the Desk of Msgr. Harrington...

Sometimes there are people who are called to be the primary caretakers of someone they love. This can be a spouse or a child taking care of a parent or a parent with a child. This might even extend to a friend or the professional who has dedicated a life to being one who cares for another. It seems that this is happening so much in today's world.

Who are these people who spend their days and nights, putting their own dreams on back burners to care for someone else? Where do they find the profound sense of service that they so often have to call upon? Where do they find the patience to attend to the needs of another person who is so reliant upon their ministry? What depth of love resides in their hearts so that they can muster this heroic strength of character to place someone else's needs before their own?

The vocation of a caretaker is not an attractive path. It isn't some romantic notion from a movie that promises a happy ending as the music swells and the credits roll across the huge screen. I would suspect it is tiresome and draining and thankless.

I remember my mother's oldest sister who had a son who was hydrocephalic. She faithfully took care of the rest of her children and her husband, but the dedication she showed in her care for her broken son was seamless. Her life was his. He wasn't supposed to survive early childhood but died at sixteen. Her love was palpable. She taught a lot of us kids about God's love.

For those of you in our community who are caretakers, know that you teach us a great deal about God's love for us. Your dedication and commitment to caring for another person reveals so much to the rest of us. Your willingness to serve in such a powerful way inspires us over and over again to remember God's fidelity, His faithfulness, His patience with us, the depth of His mercy.

We know in your frustration you see yourself as so impatient and so unforgiving of your efforts. The everyday must seem like a prison sentence. You probably rarely take the time to take care of yourself or feel guilty when you do. Caretakers seldom take care of themselves.

You need to know that your ministry does not go unnoticed. We know you serve not out of need to be recognized, but out of the need of the other person. You are so busy washing the feet of someone else that you may not notice us lifting you in prayer. The caretaker's life can be so lonely, that the shadows hint of despair. We beg you not to give in to those whispers. Your life is valuable not just from the ministry you do; your life is valuable for who you are. You are a blessed child of God, serving in His name, healing in His name, caring in His name.

To all who serve in this capacity, be certain of our prayers and support. Your place at the banquet is assured. You will be waited on by the Lord Himself, oh good and faithful servant.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sir 3:17-18,20, 28-29 Ancient wisdom insists that the more humble we are, the greater we are.

Psalm 68 “God, in your goodness, You have made a home for the poor.”

Hebrews 12: 18-19 Far from frightening, our encounter with God will be like a glorious holiday.

Luke 14: 1, 7-14 Jesus presents his own version of table manners.

True humility requires that we acknowledge our weaknesses, our imperfections, our humanness. We are not more important than our neighbor. Sirach offers this as a lesson to guide the listener. Jesus tries to teach this to the Pharisees in the Gospel we hear today. Humility begets generosity, as it recognizes the value in our neighbor, especially those who are put down. True generosity is shown when giving to those who cannot repay.

ONLINE CATECHESIS

The Diocese of Lafayette has partnered with Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio, to give everyone in the diocese access to workshops that can help in their religious formation. Although some of the workshops are geared towards teachers, many simply give information on topics that many of us want to know more about (i.e. the Eucharist, Mary, New Testament, Old Testament). All you have to do is go to www.franciscanathome.com/diolaf to begin to create your account. The Office of Catechetics has a short 3 minute video on their webpage that will direct you on how to create an account. Our parish (or institution) has already been placed in the system, so all you have to do is create your personal account.

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us.
