Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the Desk of Msgr. Harrington...

Next weekend (September 21-22) we will be commissioning all the various lay ministers serving in our church parish here at St. Landry. These ministers serve the people of God throughout the year. They commit themselves to serve God and His church. The ministry of lay people is the very heart of the life of the church.

So many dedicated parishioners serve tirelessly for the sake of the kingdom. They are lectors, extraordinary ministers of communion, ushers, altar servers, ministers of music. They serve the church as teachers, Altar Society members, Catholic Daughters, Knights of Columbus. They pray for the community every First Friday and every Monday evening at the shrine for Fr. Verbis Lafleur. They belong to That Man Is You, Come, Lord Jesus, bible study groups. They tend to the bereaved and serve as sacristans at daily masses and all weekend masses. They serve on the Parish Advisory Council, the Finance Council, the Cemetery Committee. They are members of the St. Landry Church staff and assist as collection counters and volunteers for Vacation Bible Camp. They give up their time to visit the sick and the shut-ins.

These ministers are you. You find the spark of the Spirit of God within your very self and follow His promptings to serve the Son. Your work and ministry is holy. You are holy. And you share your holiness with others.

Some of you refuse to be recognized or publicly acknowledged for what you do. There is authentic humility and nobility in that. You see a need, and you address it. Thank you.

I think that some of you forget how truly valuable you are to the community of the faithful. So often your ministry goes unnoticed or is taken for granted. It is important for you to know that your work and devotion is so deeply appreciated not only by me, but the community you serve. You bring the Body of Christ to the Body of Christ in so many ways every day. You do this with not only the Eucharist, but with the gospel message that you proclaim with your ministry, with your life.

The challenge of the gospel to let the world know who we are by our love, is mostly shown by you, not me. Your ministry is not just about helping the priest or the deacons, it's about you claiming your rightful place as a disciple, as a baptized Catholic who proclaims the wonders of the kingdom. I want to affirm you personally and also in the name of the community. We are grateful to you for saying 'yes', for serving even when you do not feel like it, for responding so eloquently to Jesus' invitation to be a servant of the people of God, a sharer in the priesthood of Jesus Himself. By virtue of your baptism you have been anointed in the name of Jesus, the Father and the Spirit as 'priest, prophet and king'. Those were the words spoken at your baptism. And you have been so faithful in living up to what Jesus asks of you.

We are so blessed here at St. Landry Catholic Church to have you minister in Jesus' name. I thank you; we thank you. May God continue the good work that He has begun in you.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ex 32:7-11, 13-14 The people worship a golden calf, and God loses all patience with them.

Psalm 51 "I will rise and go to my father."

1 Timothy 1:12-17 Paul, once the worst of sinners, is an example of Jesus' forbearance.

Luke 15: 1-32 When the lost are found, even the angels rejoice.

The chosen People turned their backs on God and worshiped a molten calf. Saint Paul, before his conversion, persecuted Christians. The prodigal son abandoned his father and squandered his inheritance. All three could easily have been punished, but instead all are welcomed back to the fold by our Lord, like the lost sheep in Jesus' parable. Let us listen in God's word for that promise of reconciliation.

PRAY FOR OUR SEMINARIANS

ONLINE CATECHESIS

The Diocese of Lafayette has partnered with Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio, to give everyone in the diocese access to workshops that can help in their religious formation. Although some of the workshops are geared towards teachers, many simply give information on topics that many of us want to know more about (i.e. the Eucharist, Mary, New Testament, Old Testament). All you have to do is go to www.franciscanathome.com/diolaf to begin to create your account. The Office of Catechetics has a short 3 minute video on their webpage that will direct you on how to create an account. Our parish (or institution) has already been placed in the system, so all you have to do is create your personal account.

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us.
