Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the Desk of Msgr. Harrington...

On October 3 at 6:00pm we will be celebrating a special mass to honor and show our appreciation for some very special people. Traditionally, this mass is known as 'the Blue Mass'. It is celebrated for all police officers, fire fighters, emergency medical personnel and all who are considered first responders.

On behalf of the staff and community here at St. Landry Catholic Church, I would like to express our profound appreciation to the men and women who serve our community in the city of Opelousas and St. Landry Civil Parish.

You are people of honor. You tirelessly serve our community. You risk your lives protecting the vulnerable and those in danger. You have families who worry about you each time and every time you are called out to serve.

You are heroic in so many ways. Your heroism is displayed every time you tend to someone in need. You give up your own time to place your life in harm's way. You make yourself vulnerable for those who are vulnerable. Some of you have served for many, many years, selflessly and nobly.

I am sure there are many days where you feel unappreciated or underappreciated. We just think that it is so important that you realize we pray for you constantly and hold you up before the Father. Our words can never adequately express our gratitude and admiration. Please know that we do understand what great lengths you go through to care for us and our families. Please know that your dedication and service are invaluable to the people you serve.

I want to encourage all of our parishioners to be a part of this special celebration. I want to encourage you to attend the mass on October 3 and show your support and encouragement to our brothers and sisters who serve this community.

Thank you once again for who you are and for what you do for all of us.

A Prayer of Blessing for Fire Fighters, Police Officers, Medical Workers and All Who Serve us in Times of Crisis adapted from The Book of Blessings #587 by Diane Macalental

Blessed are You, Lord, God of Mercy, who through Your Son gave us a marvelous example of charity and the great commandment of love for one another. Send down Your blessings on these Your servants, who so generously devote themselves to helping others.

Grant them courage when they are afraid, wisdom when they must make quick decisions, strength when they are weary, and compassion in all their work. When the alarm sounds and they are called to aid both friend and stranger, let them faithfully serve You in their neighbor. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The First Responder's Prayer by Rev. Robert A. Crutchfield

Father in Heaven, please make me strong when others are weak, brave when others are afraid and vigilant when others are distracted by chaos. Provide comfort and companionship to my family when I must be away. Serve beside me and protect me, as I seek to protect others. Amen.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Amos 6:1a, 4-7 Woe to the complacent rich!
Psalms 146 "Praise the Lord my soul!"
1 Tim 6:11-16 Seek after virtues with lasting value.
Luke 16: 19-31 There once was a rich man, and at his gate lay the beggar Lazarus.

"Woe to the complacent," Amos preaches in the first reading. Israel faces certain defeat, yet the idle rich continue to indulge their every desire. They are the first to be sent into exile. In the Gospel, the rich man ignores poor Lazarus outside his door. He suffers eternally in torment. Let us take Abraham's counsel and listen to Moses and the prophets, as well as Jesus and the apostles, and hear the words that will lead us to the kingdom of God.

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us.
