Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the Desk of Msgr. Harrington...

The second chapter of the Book of Genesis contains what is considered to be the Second Story of Creation. This account is a bit different from the beginning of Genesis, which tells of how God created the world in six days and rested on the seventh. The Second Story offers no timeline, but immediately focuses on God's relationship with the first man and the first woman.

"At the time when the Lord God made the earth and the heavens - while as yet there was no field shrub on earth and no grass of the field had sprouted, for the Lord God had sent no rain upon the earth and there was no man to till the soil, but a stream was welling up out of the earth and was watering all the surface of the ground – the Lord God formed man out of the clay of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life, and so man became a living being." Genesis 2:4b-7

All created life shares the breath of God. His breath in us is like the artist's signature on a great and marvelous canvas. He infuses His very breath into the wondrous creation He has brought into being. To deny His creation, is to deny His very breath. We participate in the life of God. In the words of Gerard Manley Hopkins, "The world is charged with the grandeur of God".

The challenge we face is to discover the dignity and integrity of the earthen vessel that holds and is nourished by the breath of God. The challenge to respect life is not only for its own worth, which would be cause enough, but also because who resides therein.

Sunday, October 6, is Respect Life Sunday. We are caught up in the grandeur of God's creation. Our task is to respect all life, from womb to tomb, every thread of God's seamless garment, His amazing tapestry of life.

It is interesting that Respect Life Sunday this year falls only two days after the Feast of St. Francis Assisi. So often we picture St. Francis with birds or various types of fauna near his person. As beautiful as most of those statues or images are, they do not come close to illustrating how passionate Francis was when he gazed upon all of God's creation. In prayer, he often referred to Brother Sun and Sister Moon. He saw us all connected to the handiwork of God; we somehow share in life that is all around us and in us. The Author of life places us in the midst of His garden and wants us to be faithful stewards, caretakers, servants of a creation He has entrusted to our care. We respect life because we are one with life. We are one with God's creation.

Respecting life means we make a commitment to the unborn, to the vulnerable, to the condemned, to the forgotten, to those judged unproductive, burdensome and unnecessary, to the alien and the outcast. Respecting life means we make a commitment to the environment and the sacred realm of God's kingdom, His garden and the life teeming within. Respecting life means we transition from exploitation and violence into the grace-filled movement of God's kingdom of life. We become peacemakers, co-creators, channels of peace, brothers and sisters in Eden, the original garden.

Touched by God's grace, we witness in a world unfinished, yearning for the fulness of God's presence. We share His breath now, but later we will become something new; a restored kingdom, basking in God's love.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Hab 1:2-3; 2:2-4 How long, Lord, will you make me witness misery?

Psalms 95 "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts."

2 Tim 1:6-8, 13-14 Guard the rich deposit of faith you were given.

Luke 17: 5-10 When you have done everything for the kingdom, do more.

Faith, even just the size of a mustard seed, can go a long way. It allows Habakkuk to withstand destruction and violence. It allows Paul to bear imprisonment and encourage Timothy to face his share of hardships. It allows the disciples to serve the Lord without recompense. Listening to the readings today, let us reflect on how our own faith has allowed us to overcome difficulties and pray for the grace to realize its strength.

PRAY FOR OUR SEMINARIANS

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us.
