Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the desk of Msgr. Harrington...

She was a widow from a small village about four and a half miles from Mount Tabor. Mount Tabor is where Jesus experienced the Transfiguration. It is where He revealed His glory to Peter, James and John. The small village Four and a half miles away is known as Naim.

The widow was leaving the town with a considerable crowd, brining the body of her only son to be buried outside of the village. She had nothing left, no one to tend to nor to tend to her. She was alone. Widows and orphans were the most vulnerable members of society. The integrity of a community was measured by how well they cared for the widow and the orphan. To be accompanied by a considerable crowd as she buried her son speaks well of the village of Naim. Maybe that brought her a small comfort, to have the support of the people who would maybe care for her now that she would be alone.

She lost her husband and her only son. Her pain must have been unbearable, her burden of grief agonizing. Now she had to bury the one she loved from the beginning of his life, accompany him at this part of his terrible journey, bring him to be one with the earth, then leave him to God. We don't know her name, we don't know the name of her son. She is identified in Luke's gospel by her station in life, not who she was; a widow who lost her only son.

We wonder why Jesus took pity on her, when so many through the centuries have suffered similar losses. How many of us have prayed from the depths of our very being to not lose someone we love? Or having lost them yearn for their return, hope that they be restored to their place at table in our homes. Why would He not listen to us but tend to this poor widow who doesn't even ask for His help?

There is no simple answer to the question why some prayers are answered, and others are abandoned to desperation. We try so hard to defend the reality of unanswered prayers, but in all honesty, I am never truly comfortable with our ready suggestions. I think it's just part of the mystery of God's movement in our lives. I know that's not very consoling or inspiring, but I simply believe that's how it is. Maybe it's not for us to understand, as frustrating as that is. Maybe our focus becomes the truth that He is still with us, even though things do not turn out like we want. Maybe He bends His shoulder to lift the burdens of our disappointment, anger and resentment unto Himself, pulling us ever closer to Himself. He touches our funeral litter of brokenness and invites us to rise even when we are so crushed by what we perceive as His neglect and disinterest.

What we know, however, is that in this story from St. Luke (Luke 7:11-17), Jesus sees the widow and is moved with pity. He tells her not to cry, then goes up and touches the funeral litter, and bids the young man to get up. The man gets up. Jesus then gives the young man back to his mother.

Maybe Jesus looks at the widow and sees His own mother. Maybe He sees the great sorrow that Mary will undergo when she as a widow loses her only son. Maybe it tears at His heart to see what pain will be forced upon His own mother as He fulfills His mission from the Father. The thought of His mother suffering is unbearable, agonizing. So He decides to free this woman leaving the town of Naim from her burden and restore her son to her side. He cannot save His own mother from this terrible fate, but He can surely help this one poor widow who has lost her only son.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mac 3: 19-20a Lo, the sun of justice will rise!

Psalm 98 "The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice."

2 Thes 3:7-12 Instead of keeping busy, some are minding the business of others.

Luke 21:5-19 When will the end of the world arrive?

Malachi sets the tone today when he speaks of fire consuming the earth. Scary. But his message does not end there. He goes on to say that healing and justice will come as well. Jesus does the same. After warning of persecutions, he assures his disciples that those who place their trust in the Lord will be kept safe. Let us listen today for those messages of hope and pray that we can persevere in our faith.
