Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the desk of Msgr. Harrington...

His name was Levi. Like his father before him, he was a dresser of sycamores. As far back as he could remember, he helped gather the figs from the trees and brought them to market in the city every week to collect the few coins that helped his family survive. He lived with his father and mother and one sister, Rachel. Theirs was a simple, but happy household. They were faithful Jews and longed for the coming of the Messiah.

Levi married Sarai when he was seventeen. They lived next door to his family. This was a blessing to the family because Levi's father had become ill and could no longer tend to the sycamores. It became Levi's responsibility to care for the trees and support both families. It wasn't very long before Levi and Sarai had their first child, Suzannah. They loved her as a precious gift from God. Even though much responsibility had been given to Levi, he and his family were very happy.

But life has a way of changing, of pulling rugs from under feet of clay. Shortly after the birth of their second child, Reuben, Levi became ill. It was discovered he had leprosy. He could no longer support the family he loved. He could no longer play with his children or visit with his father, mother and sister. He could no longer hold Sarai or be in her presence. He could no longer stay at home. He was considered unclean and was a severe threat to the people he loved most. He left one night when they were all asleep. He left with a broken heart, a diseased body, a tortured soul.

How do you make this kind of sacrifice? How do you leave the people you love the most to protect them and save them from your own illness? How do you leave your wife, your children, your parents, the very heart of yourself because of a disease you surely did not ask for? How could you find the courage to abandon the people entrusted to your care to care for them in a greater way? He actually had no choice. It was the law.

Levi's life became dust. He went from the outskirts of each town and village, covered in rags and filth, begging for food and money. Each day he thought of his family. Each day he yearned to hold his wife and his beloved children as he went from place to place declaring himself 'unclean'. As if his humiliation and pain from the leprosy were not enough to render him less than human that he now had to openly declare himself forbidden, untouchable.

Then Levi met up with nine other lepers. They traveled together for a few days before they came upon the prophet with his disciples. When Levi saw Jesus, he knew this was the day, this was the moment. When Jesus told them to show themselves to the priests, Levi knew.

Once he was cured and the scales fell from his body, he shouted in pure joy and ran. He ran to Sarai and Suzannah and Reuben. He ran to his father and mother and Rachel. He ran to their beloved sycamores that provided a life for him and the people he loved. He ran with a new heart filled with hope and possibility. He did not return to Jesus to give thanks. Who could blame him?

But maybe at another time, he ran back to the Chosen one, with his wife at his side and his children in his arms. Maybe he asked for a blessing from Jesus with a grateful and happy heart. Maybe then he gave thanks to a good and generous god.

Happy Thanksgiving! May God continue to fill you with His grace and many blessings.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Thirty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

2 Samuel 5:1-3 The shepherd David is anointed king.

Psalm 122 “Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.”

Colossians 1:12-20 God has made us worthy to share the lot of the saints in light.

Luke 23:35-43 “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.”

How is someone recognized as a king? David had been called by God and had led his people to victory in battle, so the elders of Israel's tribes anointed him king. Saint Paul recognizes Jesus as king, for he is head of the church. In the Gospel, his fellow prisoner recognizes Jesus as innocent victim and king. As we listen to the readings today, let us consider how we recognize Jesus as our King.
