OCS CORNER

Congratulations to the high school student team of Kade Domec & Emily Jesclard who won the Louisiana BETA Talent Competition at the convention and are heading to Nationals! We wish them the best!

And in the recent State 4-H Livestock Show, placing were OCS students Jenna Stelly, Reese McCauley and Harper McCauley!

The Opelousas Catholic ninth grade class recently returned from an educational trip to Washington, DC with Father Matthew Higginbotham where they toured many historic and religious sites. They were proud to leave a wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier; and freshman Chris Jesclard had the honor of raising the flag at Mt. Vernon. Lifelong memories!

Please remember the school's Angel Appeal Drive! You may mail your gift to the OCS Advancement Office, 428 E. Prudhomme St., Opelousas or make an online gift at www.OCSvikings.com. God bless!

† GOSPEL READING REFLECTION

For the second Sunday of Lent, we move from Jesus' retreat to the desert to his Transfiguration. Each year on the first Sunday of Lent, our Gospel tells the story of Jesus' temptation in the desert. On the second Sunday of Lent each year, we hear the story of Jesus' Transfiguration.

The story of Jesus' Transfiguration is told in the three Synoptic Gospels: Matthew, Mark, and Luke. In each of those Gospels, the Transfiguration follows Jesus' first prediction of his death and his teaching about the costs of discipleship. Jesus' Transfiguration is a promise of Jesus' glory, his Resurrection.

On a mountain in today's reading, a voice affirms that Jesus is God's Son in words reminiscent of the voice at Jesus' baptism. In addition, the appearance of Moses and Elijah on the mountain connects this story with God's relationship to the people of Israel. Moses and Elijah represent the Law and the Prophets, respectively. Together with Jesus, they represent God's complete Word.

The Transfiguration occurs in the presence of just three of Jesus' disciples: Peter, James, and John. In Matthew's Gospel, those disciples are among the first whom Jesus calls. The three men are identified as an "inner circle" among Jesus' disciples when Jesus asks them to accompany him to the Garden of Gethsemane just before his arrest.
